

EXCURSION: Sunday, 11 September, 2011
MARY MACKILLOP PLACE: 7-11 Mount Street North Sydney.

PROGRAM

12 noon	Mass in the Chapel. Celebrant: ACHS Chaplain, Father George Connolly.
12.45-1.30 p.m.	Lunch: Anderley Lodge Dining Room (Soup, sandwiches, wraps, fruits, cakes, tea, coffee and juice). Cost $18.00. (See booking details below).
1.45-2.45 p.m.	Presentation "Process of Canonisation of Mother Mary of the Cross".
2.45-4.00 p.m.	Tour of the Mary MacKillop Museum. Cost $8.00 or $6 for Seniors payable on the day at the Museum).

LOCATION.

The Museum is located at 7 Mount Street. The Chapel is next door to the Museum. These are about three minutes walk from North Sydney PO on the corner of Mount Street and Pacific Highway.

BOOKING.

Firm reservations for the luncheon are required by 25 August, 2011. Please post your name and contact details, together with a cheque for $18.00 made payable to the Australian Catholic Historical Society. Address: ACHS, PO Box A621, Sydney South, NSW, 1235.

There is no need to book for other activities on the day and an alternative for lunch may be the café near the Museum and Chapel or other nearby cafes etc.

TRANSPORT

Car	There is metered parking in Mount Street, but this is difficult; particularly before midday, due to a morning Mass.
Train	The nearest train station is North Sydney (5 to 10 minute walk).
Bus:	Public buses stop on Miller Street and the Pacific Highway in North Sydney. Two suggestions if travelling from Sydney CBD: M20 departing Clarence Street stop, near Margaret Street, in the City at 11.28 a.m. or 252 at 11.18 a.m. from the same stop and alight at Pacific Highway near Berry Street, North Sydney then walk (about five minutes) to the Chapel. The red M20 Metrobus also serves the following areas: Mascot, Rosebery, Redfern, Central, Town Hall (Park Street), North Sydney (including the railway station), Crowes Nest, St Leonards (including the railway station) and Gore Hill.
