

Australian Catholic Historical Society Inc

PO Box A621

Sydney South NSW 1235

ABN 28 809 751 783

PRESS RELEASE

The latest Journal of the Australian Catholic Historical Society is now published and available on the Society website.

Topics include Archbishop Vaughan, sectarian rioting, Anglican clergy converts, St Patrick's Estate, Manly, Catholics and spiritualism, and the Sydney University chaplaincy. Mary Elizabeth Calwell reviews a book about her father, Arthur Calwell, while Malcolm Mackerras reviews one about his mother.

The next event for the Australian Catholic Historical Society will be held in the crypt of Saint Patrick's, Church Hill at 2:00 PM on Sunday 16 February. The Presenter is Jeff Kildea, Barrister and Historian on the topic Tragedy and farce: The Sister Liguori story

Presentations are on the 3rd Sunday of the Month in the crypt of Saint Patrick's, Church Hill at 2:00 PM

Members, their guests, and visitors are most welcome and there is no charge.

Details of the programme of the ACHS as well as resources on church history are on the website <https://australiancatholichistoricalsociety.com.au/>

This year 2025 includes significant anniversaries.

In March Bishop Vincent Long will give a personal reflection on the 50th anniversary of the end of the Vietnam War.

In August Dr Teresa Pirola on the 60th anniversary Vatican II Declaration on Relations with Non-Christian Religions.

In October Dr Bernard Doherty on the 1700th anniversary of the Council of Nicea

In November Archbishop Anthony Fisher on the 60th anniversary of Vatican II Decree on the Pastoral Ministry of Bishops

For further information

Fr Brian Lucas, President, Australian Catholic Historical Society 0419 243 959